Keeping You Better Informed

If the above icons are meaningful to you, then you probably know a lot more about social networking than we do. Nevertheless, we never let ignorance deter us so we established a Thousand Oaks Winery presence on Facebook and Twitter.

To follow us on:

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/1000-Oaks-Winery/130067947142?ref=ts>

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/1000oakswinery>

Establishing a presence on the social networking sites is part of our ongoing effort to keep you better informed on Thousand Oaks Winery news.

We will begin emailing our newsletters, entertainment calendar, and other items of interest to people who have been kind enough to provide us their email address. If you would like to be added to our email list, just email manager@1000-oaks-winery.com.

"And Then, Depression Sets In"

Bill Murray, "Stripes", 1981

This quote from the movie "Stripes" sums up how we're feeling after turning away people who have called over the past couple of weeks. The 3 snows we received recently made our road unsafe and your safety was our primary concern. We miss your company and we're glad to report that the road is finally clear. We're sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

2008 Afterglow Released

It seemed fitting to release a wine named 'Afterglow' on St. Valentine's Day. This soft sweet Chambourcin wine is sure to please.

Winery 'Relay for Life' Team

We have been involved in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life fundraiser for some time, since Teresa and I both lost our Mother's early to cancer. A close friend of ours lost his wife to the disease last week, leaving behind a 4 week old and a 2 year old. This motivated us to step up and sponsor our own team this year. The team name is 'Batting a Thousand', since all the members and virtually everyone I know has lost loved ones to cancer.

If you are interested in joining the team or donating, please visit our team site at:

http://main.acsevents.org/site/TR?pg=team&fr_id=22245&team_id=648756 .

We will be conducting fund raising events in both Illinois and Missouri to make it convenient for everyone.

Intro to Coffee Roasting Course (20 March, 10am)

We're conducting an Introduction to Coffee Roasting course for SEMO on March 20th at Thousand Oaks Winery. Learn the history of coffee roasting and explore the various coffee growing regions and different coffee beans. Students will learn about the different types of roasters, grinders, and coffee makers. Most importantly, students will have the opportunity to select, roast, and understand how to blend coffee to achieve the best cup of coffee possible!

You can register for this course at: <http://www.semo.edu/continuing/registration.htm>

Feb 2010 Wine Club Meeting (26 Feb, 7pm)

The February Wine Club Meeting will be held at the winery on Friday Feb 26 at 7pm. Donna Aufdenberg will conduct a training course so members can apply for a permit to use controlled pesticides, if desired. We will also be sampling the new wines being released by Thousand Oaks Winery.

Our March meeting will be held on a Saturday at the home of Mike and Betty Meyer. Mike will provide the wine club with an opportunity to prune vines in his beautiful vineyard.

SEMO Home and Garden Show (19-21 March)

Thousand Oaks Winery will be at the Home and Garden show again this year. Please stop by to sample our wines and to purchase your favorites. .

Community Counseling Center Wine Festival (23 April, 6pm)

We will again be supporting the Community Counseling Center's Wine Festival. Please join us for an evening of great food and wine for a worthy cause.

Winery 2010 Entertainment

We continue to add new entertainment to our 2010 calendar. We encourage you to check our calendar of events often at:

Winery is NOT for Sale

Our neighbor is selling his farm, which started the rumor that 1000 Oaks Winery is for sale. Like Mark Twain, "The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated".
